MRS. TAFT BETTER; MAY JOIN PRESIDENT ON TOUR

Idea of Alaska Visit Abandoned, but
Executive Will Go to Seattle.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Mrs. Taft has so far recovered from the nervous breakdown from which she has been suffering since May 17 that she was able to join the family at luncheon yesterday. She is responding steadily to the treatment she is receiving, and her progress is so satisfactory that President Taft is now making plans to start on his Western trip early in September.

It is not yet determined whether Mrs. Taft will accompany him on the long journey or not. She is to go to their summer home at Beverly, Mass., at the end of this week, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Lewis Moore, and her son, Charles. The President will go up with her, but will return to Washington next week for the remainder of the special session of Congress.

Robert and Helen Taft, the other children, will join the family at Beverly the latter part of next week.

President Taft will not undertake to go to Alaska, but will go to Seattle and down the Pacific coast, coming back by the southern route. At El Paso or one of the Texas-Mexican boundary points he will probably meet President Diaz, of Mexico. He wrote to President Diaz some time ago proposing such a meeting, and has received a favorable response. The details of the meeting, however, cannot be completed until the President's itinerary can be fixed definitely.

Balster Caught Wife Eloping With Poetic Soldier Headless of the Distant Drum.

ST. LOUIS, July 2.—James Clark, a soldier stationed at Jefferson Barracks, eloped with the young wife of W. E. Balster, a farmer at Belknap, Ill., to-day. Quickly discovering her flight, Balster chased the runaway and found them seated in a pasture under a shade tree. All unconscious that Balster was near, Clark was

MOTHER ADMITS CHILD'S MURDER

Five-Year-Old Boy Brutally
Killed Because He Was a
"Bother."

STEP-FATHER ACCUSED

Victim Compelled to Carry Wood from Which Coffin Was Made.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROANOKE, Va., June 2.—A telephone message from Cumberland Gap tells of the arrest of David Moore and his wife and their detention in the jail at Jonesville, charged with the killing of Mrs. Moore's son, Harry Lee Nutshell, aged five years.

The boy's mother made a confession last night, it is said, in which she laid the crime at the feet of Moore, the boy's stepfather. The crime was committed for the sole purpose, it is claimed, of getting rid of the lad in order that his mother and stepfather might leave the country. They simply didn't want to be bothered with the boy.

The crime is alleged to have been committed at Erwin, and it was there that the arrests were made.

Much excitement arose following the arrest, and the officers took the Moores from Erwin to Jonesville, where they were placed in jail for safekeeping.

According to the report which the parents gave out, the boy had died of fever, but it was learned that no physician had attended him, and the matter looking suspicious, an investigation was conducted. The body was exhumed yesterday, and it was found that the child's head and body had been badly bruised.

The woman made a confession, in which it is claimed that she not only placed the crime at the feet of her husband, but declared that before the boy was killed Moore made him carry the lumber to the house with which the coffin in which the boy was buried was made. Moore protests his innocence.

Knocks Down Man Whose Wife He Was Helping to Get a Divorce.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 2.—Rev. Arthur C. McHenry, of Chicago, called here to testify in the divorce case of Mrs. Lulu Thompson against Archibald Thompson, real estate dealer, yesterday. He failed to get to the stand, but he did punch Thompson in the eye, felling him to the floor of the American Trust Building, and later found himself under arrest, charged by Thompson with performing a marriage illegally.

Justice of the Peace William Brown ruled against the argument of Rev. Mr. McHenry's attorney that his client could not be arrested while here, as a witness, but paroled the prisoner in custody of Rev. Dan E. Bradley, of Pilgrim Congregational Church, on Dr. Bradley's promise to produce him in court.

Thompson meantime lost his wife and $800 in alimony. Judge Willis Vickery, in the Common Pleas Court, granting a decree of divorce, which was not contested. Cruelty was alleged. Thompson declares the pastor wrecked his home. This the pastor stoutly denies. Mr. McHenry has a wife and three children in Chicago. "Thompson called me a cur when I met him," explained Mr. McHenry. "What could I do but knock him down? This is the second time I've trimmed him."

Witnesses of the fight say the pastor had the better of it. Thompson's side of the affair reads thus, in his words: "Maybe I did call him a name. What else could I do? He hit first, and I tried to hit back. If they hadn't stopped me I would have given him what was coming to him."

Rev. Mr. McHenry was pastor of the Thompsons' Church, Highland Congregational, in 1907. He fought in the Spanish-American War in the Nineteenth Volunteer Infantry.

My relations with Mrs. Thompson were merely those of a friend," explained Mr. McHenry after the hearing.

Thompson accuses him of illegally performing the ceremony that made two members of Highland Church man and wife. He also accused him of kidnapping Lillian Rutledge, Mr. McHenry declares he did not know if he was not fully qualified to perform the wedding ceremony.

SAYS UNITED STATES CANNOT WHIP CANADA

Commander of Dominion Militia Incidentally Attacks Lord Kitchener.

WINNIPEG, MANITOBA, July 2.—General Otter, commander of the military forces in Canada, said yesterday: "The United States could not beat Canada in twenty-five years. If they ever started it would be another Philippine war, and Canada would win."

Incidentally, the general remarked that Lord Kitchener would make a better manager of a department store than a soldier. He says Americans are pleased to wear the King's colors, and make better soldiers than Canadians.

General Otter has had a distinguished career. He joined the militia in 1861 as a private. He commanded the first Canadian contingent in South Africa and served in the Fenian raid and the Northwest rebellion. He was hearty in his approval of the patriotic firms who are giving their employees special leave to attend camp, and said: "It is unquestionably the duty of every man either to serve, or, if that is impossible, to assist others to do so."

SACRIFICE REMOVAL SALE

ENTIRE STOCK OF HIGH-GRADE

Clothing, Hats, Shoes and Furnishings

MUST BE SOLD

An opportunity for broad-minded people—a chance of a lifetime. Seldom is such high-grade merchandise offered at such extraordinary low prices. We assure you that if it was not for the fact that goods must be sold to enable us to open our new store 313 East Broad Street, about August 1st with a fresh new stock, it would be impossible to sell goods at prices now marked and advertised. There were two ways to dispose of our large and valuable stock—one to sell in bulk, the other to give the public at large the benefit of extremely low prices. The latter was accepted as the most practical, and the people of Richmond and surrounding country have been more than liberal in making purchases.

We want to impress upon the minds of everyone that this is the last day of this great removal sale. The last chance to buy fine merchandise at prices that would not pay for the raw material of goods. Come here for your

NAVAL OFFICERS RETIRED

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 2.—Five captains, one commander and three lieutenants-commanders of the navy, the selection of the Sperry "plucking board," to-day were retired under the navy personnel act, after approval by President Taft. They include Captain Edward F. Quaitrough, who was commander of the battleship Georgia during the trip around the world, and who was suspended from duty for six months following a court-martial at Tangier on charges of intoxication and unbecoming conduct. The others retired are Captains Dennis H. Mahan, captain of the Puget Sound Navy Yard, Bremerton, Wash.; Alexander Macrae, commander of the cruiser West Virginia; John B. Collins, commander of the

WORKMAN GIVES PENNIES TO A SICK MILLIONAIRE

Longshoreman Mistaken a Rich Traveler in a Wheel Chair for Needy Newsdealer.

DETROIT, July 2.—A recipient of charity at the hands of a ragged dock rat was the unique experience of Jerome B. Rice, a millionaire seed man of Rochester, N. Y., here yesterday. Mr. Rice, who is an invalid, travels in a wheel chair with an attendant. He was sitting on a wharf waiting for the boat when several newspapers across his lap when a typical roundabout approached. "Here, Sport," said the longshoreman, handing the millionaire a couple of coppers. "I don't want no papers, but you can put these in your kick." Mr. Rice thanked his benefactor, and seemed to derive a great deal of amusement from the experience, which, he says, is not an uncommon one.
